post-secondary school education leading to a recognised degree or diploma and (ii) six or more years of experience. Both (i) and (ii) must be in the field in which the Independent Professionals wish to supply their professional services ¹ .

3 Notwithstanding the commitments set out above, New Zealand remains unbound in cases of labour/management disputes, and also with respect to ships' crews.

4. With respect to audiovisual services, the New Zealand Immigration policy, based on the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations 1999, stipulates a special procedure for the granting of visas to entertainers, performing artists and associated support personnel for work purposes. To be eligible for a work visa or work permit, such applicants must come within the policy guidelines agreed to between the Minister of Immigration, independent promoters, agents or producers and the relevant performing artists' unions.

5. All the commitments in respect of the presence of natural persons made in New Zealand's Schedule of Specific Commitments in the WTO (as currently set out in GATS/SC/62), including any requirements, regulations and additional commitments, apply to the services suppliers of the other Parties.
